

ACI 2016 fall conferences set
September 9, 2016

Associated Colleges of Illinois has set dates for four fall conferences, aimed at supporting faculty and staff at its 22 member colleges and universities. The one-day continuing-education conferences, aimed at increasing the effectiveness and efficiency of liberal arts higher education in the state, will be held in October and November.

This fall, a new conference has been added for public relations and marketing staff.

October 17, Advancement Conference, Principia College, Elsah: This conference is for advancement and fundraising professionals of member institutions.

October 21, Student Engagement Conference, Dominican University, River Forest: This conference is intended for faculty and staff who work with low-income, minority and first-generation students at member colleges and universities. Attendees are deans of students, financial aid officers, career services professionals, multicultural officers and others.

November 4, Public Relations and Marketing Conference, Quincy University, Quincy: This conference is for public relations and marketing staff.

November 14, Chief Financial Officers, Olivet Nazarene University, Bourbonnais: This conference is intended for senior-level and chief financial officers of member institutions.