

ACI to Host Wealth Advisors at Dec. 6, Breakfast Meeting in Chicago

November 19, 2018

Carolyn Leonard, CEO and co-founder, DyMynd

ACI will host its annual breakfast meeting for financial wealth advisors Thursday, Dec. 6, an event focused on investing in ACI's student-development programs.

The breakfast will be at the University Club of Chicago, 76 East Monroe Street. Online registration is open through Tuesday, Dec. 4.

Featured speaker is Carolyn Leonard, CEO and co-founder, DyMynd, Chicago. Leonard was one of the first female independent traders to work at the Chicago Board Options Exchange. Leonard will tell her story of how she turned $250,000 of debt into a successful 21-year career, as well as what she has learned along the way about women, money and how to better engage with female clients through clarity, comfort and confidence. DyMynd's notable clients include Northern Trust, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, and Bryn Mawr College.

Dr. Troy D. Hammond, president of ACI member North Central College, Naperville, will speak about ACI and investing in liberal arts higher education in Illinois.