

ACI Board of Trustees Welcomes New Members Holly Bartecki, Demetrio Garcia and Angie Winschel

March 14, 2019

Three new members joined the ACI Board of Trustees this month, following approval by the board's Executive Committee. They are, from left, Holly Bartecki, Demetrio Garcia and Angie Winschel.

Holly Bartecki is executive vice president, creative and strategic development, Jasculca

Terman Strategic Communications, Chicago. She joined the firm in 1998, and has expertise in not-for-profits, government agencies, education and workforce development organizations. Today, Bartecki serves as senior manager overseeing work on behalf of clients such as John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, After School Matters, Urban Prep Academies and Skills for Chicagoland's Future.

Demetrio Garcia is vice president, Golden Hill Foods, Chicago, and vice president, corporate strategic partnerships, Association of Latino Professionals For America (ALPFA, Inc.). Garcia has extensive executive experience, with more than 30 years' of national and international experience in engineering, operations, planning and business development. He also serves on the boards of the advisory committee of the Boy Scouts of America, Barrio Foundation and Think Virtues Inc., all in the Chicago area.

Angie Winschel is chief operating officer, Almanac, Inc., St. Louis. As a co-founder of Almanac, Winschel has more than 25 years of experience in not-for-profit and for-profit organizations. She focuses on strategic messaging as the foundation for all successful branding, marketing, and communications. Winschel also serves on the board of Meals for a Million, a St. Louis nonprofit feeding the working poor.

With these new members, ACI now has 38 corporate board members.