ACI's Wealth Advisors Breakfast Jan. 16 Features Discussion of Building Client Relationships
Jan. 2, 2020

Rick Harig

ACI's third annual Wealth Advisors Breakfast Jan.16 features Rick Harig, certified financial planner and founder of Legacy Resources, LLC. The theme for Harig's remarks is "The Power of Questions for Securing Right-Fit Clients," focusing on enhancing financial relationships and engaging new clients.

Registration is open through Jan. 13.

The complimentary breakfast is from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the University Club of Chicago, 76 E. Monroe St. Wealth advisors, financial analysts, business or community leaders should plan to attend. Introducing ACI and the program is Dr. Troy VanAken, president of ACI member Elmhurst College.

Harig served 12 years as a trusted resource for TIGER 21, a peer membership organization for high-net-worth entrepreneurs and investors. He has lived in Europe three times in his adult life. Today, he assists his clients in defining the destination and/or purpose for their wealth.
