Gene C. Crume, Jr.

Gene Crume, Jr. was appointed Judson University's sixth president in February 2013. Before coming to Judson, Crume was an independent consultant working with Saint Mary's University of Minnesota and the Peru State College Foundation (Nebraska) on external relations and strategic planning. He spent a significant portion of his career at Western Kentucky University (WKU) as executive director of the WKU Alumni Association and taught as an adjunct instructor. Crume was executive vice president and assistant professor at Midland Lutheran College (now Midland University) and president of the Indiana State University Foundation.
