

ACI Executive Committee Elects Two Corporate Board Members

Aug. 26, 2020

Robert DiMeo, left, and Adam Lieb are new members of the ACI Board of Trustees.

The ACI Board of Trustees added two corporate members this summer from Chicago-area firms – Robert DiMeo, left, chief executive officer, DiMeo Schneider & Associates, L.L.C., and Adam Lieb, right, vice president, business development for Fidelity Family Office Services, a business unit of Fidelity Investments.

In addition to leading the firm's strategy as CEO, DiMeo authored and been the subject of numerous articles appearing in publications such as the Los Angeles Times, Crain's Chicago Business and Pensions & Investments. He has also taught courses on fiduciary responsibility and related subjects. DiMeo is a board member for Special Olympics Illinois Foundation, and advisory board member for Year Up Chicago and Catholic Charities of Chicago. He earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois.

In addition to leading the firm's strategy as CEO, DiMeo authored and been the subject of numerous articles appearing in publications such as the Los Angeles Times, Crain's

Lieb is responsible for selling Fidelity's full-service solutions to the family office marketplace. During more than 20 years' experience in the financial services and software industries, he acquired a comprehensive understanding of technology, wealth management products and services, and the requirements of family offices. Lieb is an advisory board member for Invest for Kids. He earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio.

The ACI Board of Trustees includes 34 corporate members, plus the presidents of the organization's 27 member colleges and universities.