

Daisy Gomez
Director, Events and Scholarships
312-263-2391 ext. 0
dgomez@acifund.org

Daisy Gomez joins Associated Colleges of Illinois as director of events and scholarships. Her role is responsible for the planning and execution of events as well as managing the scholarship distribution process. She brings four years of experience in event management within higher education working at Aurora University. She has a passion for assisting others reach their educational and career goals while bringing people together through events. Daisy also earned both a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Master of Business Administration from Aurora University.