

ACI Welcomes Four Board of Trustees Members

Oct. 28, 2021

ACI's newest board members are, from left, Ruben Abarca, Toya Garcia-Bradow, Christopher Miceika and Patricia Mota.

The ACI Executive Committee approved four new members who joined the ACI Board of Trustees this fall. The new members are:

- Ruben Abarca, principal consultant of his own company, CorpEdPartners, a subsidiary of Vislario, Inc.. He launched the company in 2019.
- Toya Garcia-Bradow, environmental, social and governance (ESG), and inclusion and diversity (I&D) senior marketing and communications professional at William Blair. She has worked at William Blair since 2018.
- Christopher Miceika, market director with PNC Institutional Asset Management. He has worked at PNC since 2019.
- Patricia Mota, president and CEO of the Hispanic Alliance of Career Enhancement (HACE). She began as interim CEO in 2014 and one year later, was named permanent CEO.

With their addition, the board now includes 34 corporate board members, plus the 26 presidents of ACI's member colleges and universities.