Rob Johnson
President

Rob Johnson is an Emmy-Winning, former news anchor who spent more than 20 years on the airwaves of Chicago, first at ABC then at CBS. During his on-air days Rob covered some of the biggest stories of our time from Presidential Elections, political scandals, and natural disasters to Cubs, White Sox, and Blackhawks championship runs.

Nearly three years ago, Rob left the TV business and began his own consulting firm, Rob Johnson Communications, helping clients with everything from internal and external communications, image building, presentation training, company-wide event production, and video content creation. He also is the co-host of the podcast “Can You Hear Me” which tackles some of the biggest communications issues companies face every day.

Rob has served on the ACI Board of Directors since October of 2020. He is a firm believer in the value of a liberal arts education having graduated from DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana.
