Associated Colleges of Illinois

Founded in 1952, Associated Colleges of Illinois (ACI) supports member colleges and universities by advancing independent liberal arts and sciences education and helping underserved students succeed in college, career and life. ACI does this through fundraising to support scholarships, emergency financial aid and programs for diverse, low-income and first-generation students.

ACI OPPORTUNITIES

- Career preparation: Internships, networking and life skills for diverse, first-generation students
- Career mentoring: Upper-class students develop mentoring relationships with business professionals to help launch careers
- Partnerships: Corporate and organizational partnerships enhance micro-internships, tech learning, cost savings and more
- Peer mentoring: Peer-to-peer support for diverse, first-generation students in their early college years
- Emergency financial aid: Assistance when students need it most
- Scholarships: Funding shared with member institutions, provided to diverse, first-generation students
