

ACI Cosponsoring May 8 Events with TIGER 21 Founder and Chairman Michael Sonnenfeldt
April 9, 2018

Michael W. Sonnenfeldt, founder and chairman of TIGER 21, and an accomplished serial entrepreneur and philanthropist, will address The Executives' Club of Chicago on May 8 regarding what it takes to be a successful entrepreneur. The event featuring Sonnenfeldt is from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m., at The Metropolitan, 233 S. Wacker Drive, 66th Floor, Chicago. ACI is an event sponsor.

Sonnenfeldt is author of the recent book, Think BIGGER and 39 Other Winning Strategies from Successful Entrepreneurs. Along with personal anecdotes, Sonnenfeldt will discuss his book and share stories of self-made executives, concluding with important takeaways on how these thought leaders and entrepreneurs were successful while being change agents.

Michael W. Sonnenfeldt is founder and chairman of TIGER 21.

Following his presentation, students studying entrepreneurship at ACI colleges and universities will have an exclusive opportunity to meet with Sonnenfeldt. They will convene at 1871, Chicago's center for entrepreneurship and technology, at the Merchandise Mart downtown. President Kurt Dykstra of Trinity Christian College, Palos Heights, will welcome Sonnenfeldt and the students.

A private evening reception for Sonnenfeldt with ACI board members, presidents and invited guests will be held at the University Club of Chicago. Support for the TIGER 21 events is provided through a Capacity-Building grant from the Council of Independent Colleges (CIC) with support from the UPS Foundation.

TIGER 21 is made up of more than 600 members who collectively manage more than $60 billion in personal assets. Founded in 1999, TIGER 21 now has 40 groups in more than 25 cities across the globe.
