

Greenville College tops list of state's best online colleges and universities; 6 other ACI schools also ranked

Feb. 12, 2016

Greenville College, Greenville, Illinois, was listed as the top higher education institution in the state among 4-year colleges in a ranking of “Best Online Schools for Illinois for 2015-2016.” The ranking was done by Accredited Schools Online.

According to its website, Greenville offers 14 degree programs, endorsements or enrollment courses online. The college offers an online readiness quiz to help students determine if they are ready for online courses.

Six other ACI member colleges and universities were on the list for top 4-year colleges for online educational programs. Those schools and their rankings are:

3. Dominican University, River Forest
4. Lewis University, Tinley Park
5. McKendree University, Lebanon
6. Quincy University, Quincy
7. Olivet Nazarene University, Bourbonnais
8. University of St. Francis, Joliet

“To accommodate the busy lifestyle of so many Illinois residents, more than 150 colleges and universities in the state now offer online degree options,” according to Accredited Schools Online. “This gives prospective students an overwhelming number of options when choosing where to pursue a postsecondary education.”