

Publicity Club of Chicago Presents Two Awards to ACI

June 29, 2021

The ACI team earned two awards from the Publicity Club of Chicago (PCC) for work done in 2020, including a "Golden Trumpet Award," for the organization's 2020 Virtual Benefit Reception. The Golden Trumpet Award is given to the judges' top choice in each awards category. The ACI Benefit Reception was honored in a category for special events done virtually.

In addition, the organization presented a Silver Trumpet Award to ACI's 2019-2020 Annual Report. In 2020, the PCC also presented a silver award to ACI's annual report.

ACI's annual report has been honored in four of the past five years by Chicago-area public relations organizations.

Established in 1941, the Publicity Club of Chicago is a network of Chicago-area public relations professionals and counselors. They compose the nation's largest independent public relations membership organization.

